

CHRIST, the Object of my Life

“For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain.”

Philippians 1:21.

- I. Conversion and Regeneration, then
 - A. To live to Him, seeking His glory.
 - B. To live for Him, being set apart for Him. Colossians 1:16.
 - C. To live with Him. Habitual practical fellowship.
 - D. To live in Him. Deriving all our strength from Him.

- II. To die is gain.
 - A. To be continually free from all hindrances to glorify Christ, to live for Him
 - B. To be entirely free from sin, not till then.
 - C. All service then perfect.
 - D. In uninterrupted practical fellowship with Christ. This is the prospect of every genuine believer in the LORD Jesus Christ.

(I & II is copied from notes of George Muller's which he made by his hand in the Holy Scriptures. He meditated on them with prayer.)
