

AN INSPIRATION

The most significant aspect of George Muller's 93 years on earth was his absolute obedience to the will of God. It is this example which inspired and continues to inspire men to know and exercise that faith which God requires of us all. The fact that the Spirit of God transformed a rebellious, sinful and self-determined young man to become such a man of God must surely give rise to hope for each one of us.

'Blessed is the man who trusts in the Lord'.

George Muller trusted and his trust was never in vain.

www.christbiblechurch.org